

2nd Annual Graduate Workshop on Reading, Writing, and Teaching South Asian Religious History

Wednesday, October 2nd, 2019

MN 3230, University of Toronto Mississauga

“Categories and Comparisons”

Schedule:

7:45am: Travel to University of Toronto Mississauga

9:00am-9:30am: Light breakfast and opening remarks

9:30am-10:45am: Frank Korom, “Whither Comparison?: The Ups and Downs of a Much Maligned Method”

10:45am-12:00pm: Tony K. Stewart, "The Tales of Jaban Haridas: A Discourse Analysis”

12:00pm-1:00pm: Lunch

1:00pm-2:15pm: Ayesha Irani, “Translation and the Semiotic Theory of Religion”

2:15pm-3:00pm: Jonathan Peterson, “Community and Critique, or the 'Art of Verbal Abuse' in Sixteenth-Century India”

3:00pm-3:15pm: Coffee break

3:15pm-4:00pm: Anthony Scott, “Higher Forms of Commentary: The Questions of King Milinda in the Future of the Past in Early Twentieth-Century Burma”

4:00pm-4:45pm: Kalpesh Bhatt, “TBA”

4:45pm: Concluding remarks and travel to dinner